We take your privacy seriously

At Maps4News we take great care about how our users' personal information is used, and we take your privacy seriously. This Privacy Policy describes how Maps4News collects and uses the personal information you provide in the service we provide at online.maps4news.com ("Service").

This Privacy Policy is an integral part of our Terms of Service. Before you use Maps4News please read this Privacy Policy carefully. By using or Service, you are accepting the practices described in our Privacy Policy and you agree that we will collect and use your information in the following ways.

What information do we collect?

When starting a trial of our Service, you will be asked to enter your: first name, company name, and email address. When subscribing for a Maps4News account, you will be asked to enter your first name, last name, email address, company information (name, address, registration numbers) and appropriate payment information. This information is used by Maps4News to identify the User and provide them with support, services, mailings, sales and marketing actions, billing and to meet contractual obligations. Maps4News will not retain user data longer than is necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected or as required by applicable laws or regulations.

Why do we collect that information?

We collect your information to personalize your experience with the Service, mailings and marketing actions. Your information helps us more efficiently respond to your needs as a Service user and customer. Providing your information is crucial to set up an account, process payment transactions and it's necessary for us to provide you with the Service. Your information, whether public or private, will not be sold, exchanged, transferred, or given to any other company for any reason whatsoever, without your consent, other than for the purpose of delivering the requested Service and improving the Service.

What does Maps4News do with the collected information?

The information helps us constantly improve the Service. We are also able to improve our customer service, as your feedback and collected information about your activity in the Service helps us respond to your requests faster and support your needs on the way to succeeding with the Service. We enjoy staying in touch with you by sending periodic email updates (usually once a month). The email address you provide will be used to send you onboarding information and product updates. If at any time you would like to unsubscribe from receiving future emails with product updates, we include "subscription management" link at the bottom of every message.

When can we access your information?
Our Support Team may access your Maps4News account upon your request in order to answer specific questions related to the Service or solving some problems you've reported, or which have been reported to us automatically by our system.

Can you change/update your personal information?
Every user has the right to view, update and make any corrections to the content of his/her data on our system in his/her Account or by contacting support@maps4news.com. Sharing of personal information is voluntary, however, sharing is crucial to using the Service. Sharing of non-personal visitor information is crucial to using the Service.
